

IMPORTANT INVITATION FROM ASAG
(Ashmount Site Action Group)

THE ASHMOUNT SITE DEVELOPMENT

You are invited to a meeting of residents at Hornsey Lane Estate Community Centre Meeting Room
off Ashmount Road
on Thursday, March 24, 2011, at 7.30 pm

Islington Council has now confirmed that, following the move of Ashmount School to Crouch Hill in September, 2012, the current site will be used to develop a high density housing estate.

Following the ASAG meeting in December, at which residents endorsed recommendations of the ASAG committee, a delegation met with Cllr Paul Convery of the LBI executive, to discuss the Council's plans. Cllr Convery has expressed his willingness to continue to engage regularly with ASAG and consult on the ongoing plans for the site. He has indicated that the Council favours social housing. This is your opportunity to use ASAG to inform the Council of your opinions and concerns as their plans are developed.

There are now major concerns about this new housing estate that will impact on this area.

This high density housing estate is going to be a fact and now is the time for all local residents to make their views known about the drastic changes in our Conservation Area.

Please make every attempt to attend this crucial meeting. If you cannot, we ask you to take time to fill in our questionnaire so that we know your views.
